Improve your game and learn how to compete at a high level by purchasing one of the Private Coaching packs from one of the top players in Canada. Brennan represented Team Saskatchewan four times as a junior including the 2009 Canada Games in Prince Edward Island. In 2016, Brennan won the PGA of Saskatchewan Player of the Year, Order of Merit, and was the Scoring Average champion. Each package will either be in Elmwood's state of the art golf academy or on course training. Brennan will assist with tournament schedule planning, what to expect during a tournament, and the mental side of the golf game. With our academy, year round training is always possible even in the coldest conditions. Included with the yearly package is a gift bag from Brennan which includes a golf bag, golf balls, hats, and gloves! Let's take your game to the next level!
